Science to Solutions

The Association of SIDS and Infant Mortality Programs (ASIP) is pleased to announce its 2008 conference at the historic Dearborn Inn. This conference continues ASIP's mission to provide national leadership to establish and promote policy and practices for professionals who respond to infant and child death and its commitment to bereavement support, risk reduction and prevention services. The conference will feature a variety of plenary and workshop sessions, along with a special Friday evening dinner event at The Henry Ford Greenfield Village.

Thursday, September 18:

Pre-Conference Workshops

- Infant Safe Sleep: Best Practices
- FIMR Topics
- Welcome Reception
- Annual ASIP Meeting

Friday, September 19: Conference

- Latest research
- Interactive workshops addressing current approaches to grief support, risk reduction strategies, and sustaining change
- A special, private dinner at The Henry Ford Greenfield Village

Saturday, September 20: Conference

- Diagnostic Shift: SIDS and SUID
- Medical Examiner Panel
- CDC SUID Initiatives
